The Qur'an Testimony
WHY WRITE THIS TRACT?
The Qur’an says, “For those who conceal that which We sent down of clear scriptures and admonitions, after we have revealed them to the people in the Scripture; those God will curse, and the cursers will curse.” (Sura II:159) God commands in the Bible saying: “Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed ...Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet...Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” (Isaiah 6:9, 58:1; Mark 16:15) For this reason, we feel the obligation to share with you the truths of God.

THE MUSLIM’S BELIEF
The average Muslim believes that the Bible has been tampered with; thus it was altered or changed. In this tract, it will be proven to you that the Bible could never have been tampered with. Both history and the Qur’an testify to that fact.

THE HISTORICAL PROOF
The historical proof lies in this question: Was the Bible changed before or after Mohammed? Of course, the Bible could never have been tampered with before the days of Mohammed; otherwise, Mohammed would have attacked it. Instead, Mohammed honored the Bible, and emphasized that it was the Word of God. He admonished the world to read it, saying: “You stand on nothing if you do not uphold the Torah and the Gospel.” (V:68).
If you believe that the Bible was changed after the days of Mohammed, then consider the following: At the time Mohammed came, Christianity was spread throughout the known world, with many denominations. The question arises: For the benefit of which denomination was the Bible supposed to have been altered? Was it for the benefit of the Catholics, the Orthodox, or an independent denomination? Would the denominations agree to the altering of the Bible in favor of one special denomination? Was it possible for the Jewish sects to submit to the altering of the Bible in favor of Christianity? The answer is clear: That was impossible. If the traditional Christians could alter the Bible, surely they would have eliminated the verse which says: "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image." But they could not. Besides, by the seventh century, there were thousands of Bibles circulated in the churches of all denominations, in every tongue and in every nation. There was no way they could have collected all those copies of the Bible to alter them. Also, a large number of those Bibles still exists in museums, and they are in complete harmony. Therefore, anyone who claims that the Bible has been tampered with is a person who ignorantly denies historical facts and values.

THE QUR’AN TESTIMONY

The Qur’an testifies in many verses in favor of the Bible and its infallibility. Let’s look at several: “... But they have the Torah wherein there is the Ordinance of God... and they have the Torah wherein there is guidance and light by which the prophets judge.” (V:43-48) “And we have given Moses the Book, and followed up after him by messengers, and We gave Jesus the Son of Mary clear scriptures, and We upheld Him with the Holy Spirit... And We gave Him the gospel wherein there is guidance and admonition unto the godly.” (II:86) The Qur’an also emphasized that the Bible is the Law of God, which cannot be changed, when it said, “The Law of those whom We sent before thee (i.e. before Mohammed), of Messengers, and thou shalt not find altering to Our Law.” (Surahs XVII:77, XXXIII:62, VI:34, XXXV:24 & 44)

The Qur’an describes the Bible as “Guidance and light unto the world; a message and admonition unto the Godly; the ordinance and the judgement of God; the Law of God; and the Word of God.” How then can a man, whether they are a Muslim or anyone else, dare oppose the very person of God? When Muslims say that the Bible has been tampered with, they are directly accusing God of not being mighty enough to preserve His Word and His Law. The question for you is: Are you ready to stand before God on the Judgement Day and charge Him with that accusation?

THE BIBLE MESSAGE

I repeat the Qur’an statement: You stand on nothing until you uphold and believe the Bible message. The Bible tells us that all people are sinners. “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;” (Romans 3:23). This means that every sinner is condemned to Hell. No man can save himself, and even his good works are as filthy rags in God's sight. For this reason you are in need of a Saviour. The Bible states, “But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.” (Romans 5:8) “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” (Acts 10:43)

God promises, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” (Romans 10:9) “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:” (John 1:12) Now is the time for you to accept the Lord Jesus Christ as your Saviour. Please accept Him today!
